

2. All acts and occurrences material to the instant causes of action occurred within the jurisdictional boundaries of this Honorable Court.

II. FACTS:

3. The Plaintiff, Sandra G. Curry, is an adult and competent individual with a physical address of 275 E. Mount Zion Church Rd. LaGange, GA 30241.

4. The Defendant, LINA, under information and belief, is a business entity with a principal place of business located at 1601 Chestnut Street, 2 Liberty Place, Philadelphia, PA.

5. LINA is a business entity, which issues disability insurance policies which are governed by the Employee Retirement Insurance Security Act (ERISA), 29 U.S.C. §1011, et seq.

6. On a date certain, LINA, issued a policy providing disability insurance benefits under policy number LK-0751060 to the Plaintiff through the Plaintiff's employer, Interface, Inc..

7. The policy of insurance aforementioned provided for an employee benefit plan as defined and covered under the terms of ERISA.

8. At all times material and relevant hereto, all policy premiums due on behalf of the Plaintiff under said policy were paid.

9. At all times material and relevant hereto, the Plaintiff performed all obligations required of her under said contract of insurance.

10. At all times material and relevant hereto, the Plaintiff was a qualified participant in the employee benefit plan provided by LINA to the Plaintiff's employer under the aforementioned policy.

11. On a date certain, the Plaintiff filed an application for short term disability benefits with LINA. The Plaintiff began receiving short term disability benefits.

12. By correspondence, LINA notified the Plaintiff that her claim was denied beyond March 9, 2021.

13. The Plaintiff filed an administrative appeal and submitted additional medical records and opinions of her treating physicians in support of her claim.

14. By correspondence dated May 17, 2021, LINA denied the Plaintiff's administrative appeal.

15. LINA acted arbitrarily, capriciously and in a manner serving only its own business interest when it denied the Plaintiff's claim for disability benefits.

16. The actions of LINA in denying the Plaintiff's claim for disability insurance benefits was arbitrary, capricious and was not made in good faith and made in violation of 29 U.S.C. §1001, et seq.

17. The actions of LINA in denying the Plaintiff's claim for disability insurance benefits are contrary to the language of the policy in question.

18. The Plaintiff is entitled to disability insurance benefits under the aforementioned policy as she has satisfied through medical evidence that she meets the definition of disability under the policy of insurance.

19. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover the benefits due to her under the aforementioned insurance policy in accordance with 29 U.S.C. §1132.

20. As a direct and proximate result of the actions of LINA as herein above more particularly described, the Plaintiff has been caused to incur attorneys' fees in an amount not yet known.

21. As a direct and proximate result of the actions of LINA, the Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount not yet known to the Plaintiff; however, upon information and belief, such damages will approximate the amount of benefits due and owing to the Plaintiff from March 9, 2021 to the present and continuing into the future.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, Sandra G. Curry, respectfully requests that judgment be entered against LINA as follows:

1. Ordering LINA to pay to the Plaintiff, Sandra G. Curry, short term disability insurance benefits from March 9, 2021 to the present and continuing into the future as provided for in the policy of insurance;
2. Awarding the Plaintiff, Sandra G. Curry, prejudgment interest on the award until the date of judgment;

3. Awarding the Plaintiff's attorney's fees, court costs and other reasonable costs incurred for the prosecution of the instant action;
4. Granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
